In response to the Office Action dated July 18, 2007, applicants hereby elect the invention represented by the claims of examiner's Group I, namely, claims 1-11, 16, and 17, with traverse, for examination on the merits at this time. Applicants assume that the Office Action contains a typographical error in stating that Group II contains claims 12-17. This response is based on the assumption therefore that the examiner's Group II actually contains method claims 12-15. The Office Action identifies no Group III, as referred to in paragraph 3 of the Office Action at pages 2 and 3.

It is submitted, however, that all claims 1-17, i.e., examiner's Groups I and II, should be examined at this time. The novelty of the invention is defined in the claims of both Group I and Group II, which are not two independent and distinct inventions because the statutory requirements of 35 U.S.C. §121, namely, independence and distinctness, are not present herein.

The inventions of examiner's Groups I and II are not independent because the compositions and the methods set forth in the claims are so closely related that a search for
